INFORMED CONSENT

WELCOME

You have taken the important first step to pursue counseling with F. Heath Smith IV, Licensed Professional Counselor and Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor. As a licensed clinician of over 30 years, I have a broad experience with many life issues that have negatively affected an individual's ability to thrive. Educationally, I have pursued my passion in professional and faith-based counseling with Master's Degrees in both disciplines. Additionally, I am certified as a Christian Life Coach to assist individuals interested in pursuing growth and wellness in a non-clinical manner.

I realize that starting counseling is a major decision, and you may have many questions. This document contains valuable information about my professional services, state and federal laws, and your rights. If you have any questions about what is stated in this document or about something that is not covered in this document, please ask me so that we can discuss your questions.

THE THERAPEUTIC PROCESS

I view counseling as a way to enrich your life. Counseling can improve your physical, mental, and spiritual wellbeing as well as your relationships with others. You may have specific issues to address or just want to enhance your day-to-day living. While some people believe that seeking out counseling signals weakness, I wholeheartedly believe that seeking counseling for oneself exhibits tremendous strength. Counseling can serve to further uncover your strengths and help provide strategies about ways to employ them. My approach to counseling could be best understood as an eclectic theoretical framework with a predominant orientation towards cognitive behavioral paradigms.

The therapeutic process can have many benefits and risks and it is important to consider both when making any treatment decision. Addressing uncomfortable subject matter or confronting unhealthy behavioral patterns may cause increased distress for a period of time; however, counseling has been shown to have many benefits including improved relationships, a significant reduction in feelings of distrust and resolution of specific problems. While not all of the therapy may meet your expectations, and your symptoms may be, more pronounced at different points during the course of therapy, therapy is hopeful work.

SERVICES OFFERED

I am trained and experienced in counseling individuals, couples, families, and groups. I provide counseling to adolescents, and adults presenting with a wide range of issues. I do not prescribe medication. If you or a family member requires services that I cannot provide, I shall assist you in a referral, and with your permission, coordinate services with the specialty provider.

In our initial session(s), I will gather information about your reasons for pursuing counseling and take a personal history. After the evaluation session(s), I will be able to offer you some first impressions of what our work together will include and a treatment plan to follow, if you decide to continue counseling with me. We will work together to devise a counseling plan that offers reasonable promise of success and is consistent with your abilities and circumstances. We will regularly review the plan to ensure its continued viability and effectiveness. At any time, you have the right to terminate counseling. If at any time you would like a referral to another psychotherapist, I will provide one.

APPOINTMENTS (CANCELLED, RESCHEDULED, or MISSED/NO SHOW APPOINTMENTS)

When scheduling an appointment with our office, please check your calendar to avoid conflicts in schedule (work, doctor's appointments, school, etc.) as missed appointments with less than a 24 hour cancellation and/or reschedule notice will be charged for the reserved time. To avoid being charged for a scheduled appointment (reserved time) whether initial or follow-up, the appointment must be cancelled and/or rescheduled no less than 24 hours prior to the scheduled appointment and one business day in advance (on Friday) if scheduled on Monday by calling the office at 956.994.1428 (and leaving a message). A missed appointment is a lost opportunity for both client and counselor. The counselor has reserved that time for the client. Other clients have not had access to that appointment time because it was held for you. In addition, your counselor considered the appointment time an important part of your counseling. While unforeseen emergencies do occur, please make every effort to keep your appointment as scheduled. When, on occasion, I will be unavailable for appointments, I will make every attempt to inform you of this in advance. If I will be unavailable for an extended time, I will provide you with the name of a colleague to contact, if necessary.

Payment by cash (exact amount), debit card or credit card is due prior to securing an appointment. This office does not work directly with any insurance carriers. If you would like to submit an itemized receipt to your insurance carrier for out-of-network reimbursement, please let the office know and I will provide a mental health diagnosis, if applicable, for insurance purposes. Any diagnosis given creates a public record of a mental health condition. Your signature gives me permission to communicate with your insurance carrier which in turn means your counseling is not confidential. Your insurance carrier will determine how many sessions it will cover for the diagnosis. In addition, there are some mental health services that many insurance carriers do not cover. It is your responsibility to check with your insurance carrier, prior to your appointment, to determine if services provided by me will be covered. Payment of outstanding balance(s) is required prior to scheduling a follow-up appointment. Once services are performed, refunds cannot be made for services rendered.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Records are maintained on each client. Records may contain the following: identifying information; session notes; any reports from other professionals regarding your treatment; any correspondence or other materials that you send to me; copies of any correspondence about you that I send to others. These records are meant to be a working document to both reflect and guide your therapeutic work. Your counseling is confidential except in the following circumstances:

- 1) If you choose to seek reimbursement for counseling from your insurance provider, I will communicate about your counseling with your insurance provider;
- 2) If I have reason to believe that you may harm yourself or others;
- 3) If I have reason to believe that you are involved in or have knowledge of abuse or neglect of a child; or abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a person who is elderly or has a disability or
- 4) If I am ordered to disclose by state or federal courts;
- 5) If you sign a release of information for me to communicate with someone else;
- 6) Information necessary for supervision or consultation;
- 7) Information noted in the HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practice.

EMERGENCIES

While I will always try to return your call or email within 24 hours and usually sooner, I am not an emergency mental health service. If you experience an emergency, you should call 911, call the crisis Tropical Texas Behavioral Health hotline at 877-289-7199 or go directly to your nearest emergency room.

OUT OF OFFICE COMMUNICATION

Email and text message communication can be a convenient means of setting and confirming appointment times through the office staff, but this office will not use email or text message communication as a forum for discussing serious psychotherapeutic issues. Email or text message communication may not be a secure way of sending and receiving information, and while I make every attempt to keep my emails and text messages confidential, you may not hold The Sendero Group, PLLC, F. Heath Smith IV or staff liable for any breach of confidentiality that results from the use of email or text message communication. The ethics of professional counseling does not allow for social media contact with patients that are actively involved in psychotherapy and, additionally, for a two year period following termination of services. You will be contacted by cell phone, text message and/or email as a courteous reminder of upcoming appointment(s) and/or for requests of communication.

 CONSENT FOR TREATMENT OF MINORS *****

Clients under 18 years of age who are not emancipated and their guardians should be aware that the law allows parents to examine their child's treatment records unless I believe that doing so would endanger the child, or we agree otherwise. Because privacy in counseling is often crucial to successful outcomes, particularly with teenagers, it is sometimes my policy to request an agreement from parents that they consent to give up their access to their child's records. If they agree, during treatment, I will provide them only with general information about the progress of the child's treatment, and his/her attendance at scheduled sessions. If the child reveals something to me that I believe that child should tell the parents, I will request that the child tell the parent(s) in my presence. I will notify the parents if I believe the child is a danger to himself/herself or others. The patient and parent/guardian should sign below if (s)he agrees with this statement.
